

CategoryObsolete

This category links pages that are obsolete and are superseded by some other pages elsewhere.

Note, that the wiki engine preserves history of the pages. To view the previous version of a page:

1. Click on the Info link above the page content. It will display the history of the page.
2. There, click on the view link that is to the right of a previous version of the page. It will display that version.
