RoomShares

Please use this page to contact other people who would like to share a room at the conference. Leaving your name, email address, and, optionally, phone number, will facilitate making contact. You should also note where you would like to stay, and your gender, to avoid unwelcome surprises.

ApacheCon US 2008

Reminder: the best inter-US airfares tend to be found between 60 and 30 days before you travel, so be sure to make your travel plans early! Early bird prices end on 15-August, and don't forget to sign up for the special registration rate if you are paying for a room at the hotel.
