There is not much to report for the Excalibur project.

- We've settled on our bylaws (http://wiki.apache.org/excalibur/Bylaws, to be relocated to a more permanent location of course);
- Leif Mortenson did a lot of work on our instrumentation packages, which are pending release;
- Some interesting experiments with the fortress codebase involving Aspect-Oriented Programming;
- several small bugfixes, both in Excalibur and some of our dependencies.

No releases, no new committers, no changes in the PMC. No problems.
