MeetingBordeaux2010

The community of the Apache Lenya project would like to invite you to the next user and developer meeting in Bordeaux, France.

The meeting allows users from various organizations to exchange their experiences and best practises, and to make suggestions for improvement to the developers. The focused atmosphere enables the community members to discuss important matters affecting the future of the project as well as particular implementation details.

A Lenya conference is plan for the "RMLL fauna" 🙂 on Friday 9 July 2010 at 09h20 (am) (conference description : http://2010.rmll.info/Introduction-to-Apache-Lenya.html?lang=en)
