About

My company uses Hadoop.

I do a very rarely updated blog.

And so on.

Pages I Watch Over

None quite yet... when I start I'll link to them from here.

Contact

My email account is with google (hint hint - avoiding spam filters). The login is almostlikethat which means that giving people my email address can turn into a who's on first routine.

You email is almost like that?

Yes, it's almost like that.

Wait, like that?

No, all three words: almost like that.

This gets old sooner than you'd think... but I chose it in part to be memorable, so I guess it's worth the price of admission 😊
