RichardSchilling

I'm an open source developer with development that dates back to the 1990's. Ouch - I'm dating myself.

My links on this Wiki:

- ScalableBackEnd - a project to develop an object store in Java for JDO
- ScalableBackEndLiterature - the bibliography for the ScalableBackEnd project
- JdoCodeBase - useful information about the JDO code base for developers
- TestingAndBuilding - information related to testing and building of the source
