

February 2010

Apache Click is an easy-to-use page and component oriented Java web framework.

Infrastructure

- All TLP infrastructure tasks have been resolved
- The website have been migrated to <http://click.apache.org/>

Development

- v2.1.0 has been released this week
- Discussions are underway for features in the next release, v2.2.0

Community

- Interest in Apache Click is growing and a new tutorial has been published on IBM DeveloperWorks.
- Mailing list traffic have been steady