Discussions

- Changing contributor status of inactive (3+ years) community members.
(We contacted those community members on November 7, 2011. Some answered that they are going to be active again soon, some confirmed that they aren't active any longer and the majority didn't even answer.
We will mark them as inactive and send the result to the dev list.)
- MyFaces CODI goes TLP
(Result: Apache DeltaSpike incubation project. Furthermore, we sent an announcement about the future of MyFaces CODI.)
