Lists

Westword Best of Denver 2014 The Westword, the de facto standard for Denver news and entertainment.

Places for Breakfast

Yes this is really important. 😊 Denver is really known for Mexican food. In particular, Green Chili. Sams No 3 is known for thier breakfast burritos.

Sam's Number 3 This place has award winning breakfast burritos. Be sure you get them smothered in green chili. Trust us... you will have dreams about this for years to come. 😊

Its about an 8 minute walk from the hotel (if even that). Be expected to see many Apache folks there. 😊

Snooze Amazing breakfast.

Delectable Egg Good local breakfast spots. (two close to the venue)

Skiing

Yeah, you are reading right. World class skiing is not too far, but will likely require a car. Ski resorts are beginning to close, but a few are still open.

Check out these resorts which are open during ApacheCon and not too far from Denver:

- A-Basin: <http://www.arapahoebasin.com/Abasin/Default.aspx>
- BeaverCreek: <http://www.beavercreek.com/>
- Breckenridge: <http://www.breckenridge.com/>
- Copper Mountain: <http://www.coppercolorado.com/winter/index.html>
- Keystone: <http://www.keystoneressort.com/>
- Loveland: <http://skiloveland.com/>
- Vail: <http://www.vail.com/>
- Winter Park: <http://www.winterparkresort.com/>

A local secret... Loveland is awesome and has a lot of bowls... not too far and doesn't get the crowds the other resorts get. The best snow is likely at A-Basin and Loveland due to their altitude.
