ApacheCon NA 2018, Tomcat Summit and Cloudstack Collaboration Conference September 2018

Cloudstack Collaboration Conference and ApacheCon North America were held in lovely Montreal, Canada. CloudStack started the week with lots of information from the many developers on the CloudStack project, and ApacheCon ended the week with community and development learning from the world's experts in the Apache Way.

We've got slides posted from the event on the session information pages for those who missed our great event.
