

AmsterdamStammtisch

When?

Monday April 19th, 2004, the day of the XMLEurope and Gilbane conferences, 7 o'clock PM.

Where?

Café Gambrinus, Ferdinand Bolstraat 180, Amsterdam. This is quite near to the RAI conference area, about 10 minutes walking. Getting to Central Station from Gambrinus is easy by several tram connections (take number 25). Outside the RAI main entrance, walk left into the Scheldestraat (street with bars) and keep on walking until you cross a bridge at the Okura hotel. The same street is now called the Ferdinand Bolstraat. Find number 180 (it's on the left). That's it!

What about?

Just some beers and diner for those who are hungry. Cocoon talks.
