May 2010

Apache Click is an easy-to-use page and component oriented Java web framework.
There are no board level issues at this time.

Infrastructure

No issues

Development

There has been a substantial development effort this quarter leading up to the release of Apache Click 2.2.0:

8 May 2010 - Apache Click 2.2.0-RC1 was released on 8th May 2010

Apache Click 2.2.0 final release is currently being voted on for release this month.

Community

Mailing list traffic have been steady